Builders Association Awards Bill Beazley Homes with Three Stellar Awards

Local builder Bill Beazley Homes is honored for achievements in Richmond County, Georgia, and Aiken County, South Carolina, new home communities.

Augusta, GA., March 7, 2023 – The Builders Association and Sales & Marketing Council of Metro Augusta hosted the 2023 Stellar Awards at the West Lake Country Club. The annual event recognizes new home real estate agents and builders' achievements in 2022.

Bill Beazley Homes were honored with three awards in Best Curb Appeal for a Spec Home, Best Kitchen for a Spec Home, and Best Selling Community (51 plus sold). Liz Bragg, Berkshire Hathaway HomeServices Beazley, REALTORS®, received the Sales & Marketing Council Community Service Award. Liz is a site agent at Bill Beazley Home's Clearwater Preserve, a master-planned community in Aiken County, SC.

Best Curb Appeal for a Spec Home

Danbrooke Village is a thoughtfully designed community located off Whiskey Road in Aiken, SC. The neighborhood features single-family attached homes with rear-entry parking, sidewalks, a gazebo, and plenty of green space.

Nestled between the single-story and two-story homes is a wide-open common area, a shared space where residents can congregate or relax. Front patios integrate into the shared space, feed into walkways, and connect residents to all of the outdoor amenities at Danbrooke Village.

The landscaping is attractive and appealing, with various native perennials and shade trees. The rich natural hues from the landscaping complement the exterior home color palette, a mix of warm and welcoming neutrals.

Best Kitchen for a Spec Home

The Bill Beazley Homes' Kingston 13 floorplan kitchen features a power pantry with a hook-up for a second refrigerator or freezer. In addition, homeowners will appreciate the large island, designed to offer more storage, counter space, and extra seating.

The GE stainless steel appliance package includes a dishwasher, 30-in wall oven, built-in microwave, 30-in gas range, and hood.

From a design perspective, the white and grey granite compliments our choice of waterproof Evacore Southern Pine flooring throughout the space.

Best Selling Community (Under 50)

Hayne's Station won Best Selling Community (Under 50). The development contains single-family homes with one-story ranch-style floorplans and spacious, two-story ones. In addition, it's the only community in Richmond County with a resort-style pool.
